The promoter shall select a Hotel which will serve as the Tournament Headquarters.

Art. 4.6 Scales

There shall be a minimum of two seats of Medical Balance Scales made available to the Fighters a minimum of two days before the Official Weigh-in.

Art. 4.7 Refreshments

A refreshment area shall be provided for the use of the Referee's Judges and Table Officials. It should have a minimum of tea, coffee and soft drinks. The promoter will be responsible for sending the national WAKO Presidents all relevant information concerning the locations, dates, lists of Hotels and prices, airport transportation and a complete schedule of events. The Promoter shall have Transportation

Coordinators assigned at the Airport of the Tournament city to assist the Competitors upon their arrival. The National Presidents are responsible for providing their flight times to the Promoter. The Promoter shall be responsible for the providing of all personal and equipment necessary to conduct and administer the Tournament.

Art. 4.8 Tournament Check-List

WAKO has made a tournament checklist to be distributed to the promoters of World and Regional Championships. If the promoter has to deviate from this checklist it is the promoters' responsibility to establish contact with WAKO and its Organizing Committee to find best possible solution.

A Tournament Checklist can be changed by the Organizing Committee or by the Board of Directors.

Art. 4.9 Weigh in Procedures

“Chairman of the referee committee and/or the Technical Director outpoint the WAKO official’s to organize the weigh-in. During the weigh-in, two WAKO officials will be present, 1 Female official -1 Male official.

Also one representative of a national federation connecting to each national team may be present, but only when their own teams weigh-in. However they are not allowed to intervene on any occasion. The national representative can not be in physical contact with the fighter, and should stand away from the scales - at least 1 meter.

Each fighter must have his own WAKO sports pass with medical certificate included, valid for 1 year, to be shown at weigh-in. In addition he/she must have available his/hers official passport. After being weighed, each fighter must be declared fit for fighting by a qualified doctor.

The fighters of each weight category will be weighed the day before the start of competition or on the same day that they have been drawn to fight. For a single fight for a fighter, a normal procedure is to have weigh-in approx 24 hours before the fight.

If weigh-in the same day of the fights the fights will start at least 3 hours after the weighing time, or in a shorter lapse of time if the Board of Directors so decide, after consulting the Medical Committee, provided that the decision is not prejudicial to any fighter taking part in the first bouts of the tournament.

The weigh-in will be held according to the tournament schedule. The announced time in each competition is understood as official and must be respected. Weigh-in outside the official announced time will not be allowed, except if the weigh-in is not considered as finished of those teams present within the announced time. For the first official weigh-in (in the registration period) there may be given possibility to weigh-in after the official time, if any delays of travel for a team, properly announced and warned from the national federation if such may happen. However it is not allowed for any team to speculate in arrival after official weigh-in time announced in the invitation papers. All teams must have weighed-in before drawing.

Official weigh-in (registration period): If the fighter exceed his/hers weight, he/she can within the official time get a second chance to reach the limit. However the fighter must wait in line and the WAKO official decides when the second weigh-in will be made. The weight registered on that occasion is final. If the fighter does not make the weight at this second weigh-in, there are two options:

WAKO General Rules

- 1) Direct disqualification. Decision of WAKO official is final and can not be appealed.
- 2) To move up one weight category, but only if the national federation has got a vacancy in that category and if the weigh-in is not yet closed.

It is also allowed for all national federations to substitute one fighter with another, before the end of the official weigh-in and before the medical check-up, on condition that, within each competition where substitutes are allowed, the fighter in question has been registered as a reserve for that, or in any other weight category.

Daily weigh-ins: In tournaments, ring sports have daily weigh-ins or at least three weigh-ins during the tournament. The weigh-in is done in the morning at an announced time, considered as official. Weigh-in outside the official announced time will not be allowed, except if the weigh-in is not considered as finished of those teams present within the announced time. All fighters must bring their own national passport as identification. If the fighter exceed his/hers weight, he/she can within the official time get a second chance to reach the limit. However the fighter must wait in line and the WAKO official decides when the second weigh-in will be made. The weight registered on that occasion is final. If the fighter does not make the weight at this second weigh-in he/she will be disqualified.

The weight is what the scale shows when the fighter is undressed. The weight must be displayed in metric measures. Electronic scales can be used. A fighter is allowed to fight solely within the category defined by the weigh-in. The weight must be on hard floor and not on carpet.

The weigh-in must be done in a discrete manner, respecting both male and female's need for discretion. It is to prefer to use separate rooms for male and female."

Any speculation or deliberate actions that will question or break the above rules will be sanctioned, both for fighters involved and the national federation responsible."

Art. 4.10 Nationality of a fighter:

In Continental or World Championships, competitors must represent nationality for the country he/she represent, showing the passport for the respective country. Under special circumstances a competitor can change representation one time but the requirements for that is:

- 1) Official national confirmation of permanent residence in his/hers new country.
- 2) The change of representation must be applied on to WAKO HQ, explaining the reason for the change.
- 3) There must be a written agreement with the country of origin.
- 4) Any speculation for such representation will not be allowed. Such can be punished for the competitor as well as for the new country.
- 5) He/she can not again switch back and participate for his/hers origin country.

A competitor having two passport form different countries can only make a switch one time. If changing representation, it must be done according to a written agreement between the countries and applied on to WAKO HQ. At weigh-in, official passports must be shown to the registration/weigh-in officials in charge. In Continental Championships competitors from other continents are not allowed to participate.

Art. 5. Protests

Art. 5.1 Regular protests

If a team wants to protest of a result, the Chief Referee must receive it in written form within 15 minutes after the fight. The written protest must describe clearly the problem. The Chief Referee must deliver the protest to the Appeal Board/Referee Committee who will also consider the problem. The protest will be handled immediately.

Note that in the Full Contact, Low-Kick, KI, Light Contact and Kick Light there will be no changing in decisions as described in Article 18 in the Ring Sports and in Article 17 in Light-Contact.

A protest cost of 100 EURO and must be paid up-front. If the protest is successful the money will be refunded.

WAKO General Rules

Art. 5.2 Irregular protests

Irregular protests regarding disagreements of decisions, where fighters protests by delaying further program in the ring/Tatami, such as sitting down in the ring/Tatami, decided by himself or stimulated by his coach/team to do so, will be reacted on by the Referee Committee or by the Board of directors directly. The consequence can be that the total team of the discipline can be excluded. If security staff has to intervene and in case of conflict due to this action, it will lead to immediately disqualification of the whole national team.

A protest will only be accepted in a written letter and a protest will not be handled if actions mentioned above are in place.

Art. 6. Video evidence

Video footage is not applicable to WAKO events. Video footage may not be used to resolve any queries, complaints or points of clarification Duties.

Art. 7. Officials in General

All officials on championships and cups are WAKO officials. They are not officials of their own countries or federations. They must be completely neutral. At all times during championships they represent WAKO. They show an unbiased, positive and honest attitude and fair play to everyone.

Officials at WAKO World, Continental and Regional Champions and WAKO World Cups are:

- Representative of the WAKO Board of Directors
- Chief Referee Committees (ring sports and Tatami sports)
- Chairman of the various Committees
- Administrator / computer man
- Chief referees for Tatamies or rings
- Referees
- Judges
- Kick counters
- Time keeper
- Score keeper
- Announcer
- Doctor with medical team

Art. 8. WAKO Representative

A WAKO representative must be present in all WAKO World and continental championships and/or World, continental and regional cups. The representative at a tournament can be the WAKO President or a member of the WAKO Executive Board. He is responsible for seeing that all championships or cups are under WAKO rules and that all results will be WAKO official results. For each championship or cup the WAKO Board or WAKO President will nominate a WAKO Representative.

Art. 9. Referee Committees of Tatami sports / ring sports

In WAKO we have created two Referee Committees: one for Tatami sports and one for Ring sports.

The Chairman of each Committee is responsible to name Organizer/Observer for Tatami or rings and with Organizer/Observer deploy referees and judges for Tatami and rings. With each Organizer/Observer he checks Tatami, rings, official table equipment, referee and judge uniforms and he will permit the start of competition. He will divide draw papers to the official tables and collect them after finished matches. He is the supervisor of the weigh-in. He is responsible for making draw lists (with the administrator) and only he can make changes to official draw lists. He will be the supreme referee in protests. His decision about protests will be binding.

Referee Committees are named by WAKO Board of Directors and stay in charge for 4 years unless decided by WAKO Board itself.

WAKO General Rules

Art. 9.1 Tournament Committee / Computer Man

The Administrator is responsible for collecting all registration material and loads data into a computer to prepare draw lists. With the Tournament Committee he makes draw lists and distributes them to the official tables. He collects completed draw lists after matches are finished and transfers the results to the computer. He will make an official report of the Championship or Cup and distribute the official report to all representatives of national teams. If the promoter of a championship cannot appoint a responsible person for administration, the WAKO board or WAKO President will nominate an adequate person.

Art. 9.2 Organizer / Observer

Organizer/Observer (named by the Chairman of Tatami sports / ring sports) is responsible for normal procedures for matches held on Tatami or rings. They will deploy referees and judges for every match according to their quality and with respect for neutrality rules. They are responsible for the correct compilation of the draw list with results, and at the end he will sign the draw list and give it to the responsible. In case of protests, they must follow procedures and they make a first-level decision. If the protester is not satisfied with his decision, the organizer/observer will explain all details of the protest to the Technical Director. Organizer/Observer supervises referees and judges and can change a referee's decision only in case of a "material mistake".

In musical forms the Chief Referee will give the signal to competitors to start performing and he coordinates the work of other judges.

The Chairman of Referee Committee of championships or cups will appoint organizer/observer from well-experienced referees who come with their national teams.

Art. 9.3 Referee / Judges / Kick counter / Time and Score Keeper

The duties of Referees, Judges, Kick counter, Time and score keeper are described in the chapters General Rules of Tatami Sports or General Rules of Ring sports.

Art. 9.4 Announcer
